

The Saskatchewan Genealogical Society

is hosting a

Beginner Genealogy

Workshop

Saturday, September 22, 2018

10:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

This workshop will focus on how and where to start to “explore your roots”, how to source your research, sources and citations, using software or not, using the Internet - pros and cons, and lots of discussion time.

Please note: This workshop combines Beginner Genealogy
Part 1 - Exploring Your Roots and Beginner Genealogy
Part 2 - Where to Next?

Certified Instructor: Chris Krismer

Cost is $60

Location: SGS Library and Research Room

Room 110, 1514 - 11th Avenue, Regina

Please feel free to bring your family history research or information with you to the workshop.

Please bring a bag lunch.

Advance registration is required. Register Now!
Space is limited. Call 306-780-9207 to register.