

The College of Certified Saskatchewan Genealogists (CCSG) and the Saskatchewan Genealogical Society (SGS) invite you to join us for Chat with a Genealogist on the first Saturday of every month via Zoom.

We'll start at 10:00 a.m. with a brief educational session followed by discussion. Grab a coffee, and join us for an hour or so.

Join us for the First Series of Chat with a Genealogist:

Saturday, March 6 – How to Find Saskatchewan Records

This Session will be hosted by Laura Hanowski and Thelma Caldwell

Saturday, April 3 – How to Make the Best Use of Saskatchewan Records.

This Session will focus on the records that were discussed in the March session. Hosts for this session are Celeste Rider and Shelley Kloczko.

Saturday, May 1 – Next Steps

This Session will follow-up on the April discussion with recommended next steps. Hosts for the May Session are Jean Ashcroft and Dianne Romphf.

Pre-registration is required. You must register by 5 p.m. on the Friday prior to each Session. You can register in advance for each of these sessions using the following link:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZckcOmhrzgiGtEiNzZioe-qtkNK5kvdTgsh>

You must register for each Session individually (using the link above). After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing the link to join the monthly session.

To ensure your question or questions are a part of the discussion, please submit them 2 weeks in advance to ccsgen@gmail.com.
